

THE PERMANENT INTERACTIVE EXHIBITION

The 45-minute journey starts from "My Room", continues through "My Home" and "My City" and ends at "My Country". Through this journey, visitors can experience and explore issues of civic education and national education from different perspectives.

INTRODUCTION OF THE CHARACTERS

MICHAEL (FORM 1)

Amy's cousin and Judy's schoolmate. Simple and a bit spoiled. Indulges in online games and is adventurous and fun-loving.

AMY (FORM 5)

Kind-hearted but a little bit reserved and unsociable. An average student with low self-esteem. Gifted at art and good at sketches.

JUDY (FORM 3)

Gary's sister and Michael's schoolmate. Smart and ambitious. An outstanding student who wants to become a doctor.

GARY (20 YEARS)

Judy's brother and Amy's good friend. Outgoing and optimistic. Has been working in a marketing firm since graduation. Never gives up his dream of becoming a guitarist although his income is good and stable.

OTHERS FACILITIES

The Resource Corner has a collection of over 5 000 volumes of reference materials and teaching kits on civic education, national education and youth development. Computers are provided at the Resource Corner for visitors to browse the CPCE website and other related websites.
